Acknowledgment of Traditional Territory
1. September 11, 2024, Report	The committee reviewed the report and recommended no changes.	None.
2. School Plans	Director of Instruction Cameron provided back ground on how the School Plans have developed over the past four-years and introduced school Principals for 150 Mile Elementary (Craig Munroe), Marie Sharpe Elementary (Kelly Glen), Kelvin Parent and Grant Gustafson — review how Cariboo Information Management System (CIMS) is assisting with the careers and First Nations programs and tracking progress, and Lake City Secondary – (Curt Levens)student sense of belonging at a secondary school can be difficult. Being able to move away from the Provincial to a more local questionnaire, has been able to better answer the school key questions around having the right programs, and events in place. Question: AK – when you start school in September, you’re at a bit of a loss. This gives you a bit of a starting point. WM – Love this! It can follow the children and helps fill a hole. WM – the number of responses that came back as “students” did not feel that anyone cares”? how is this being addressed? CL – Feeling that the questions were not fully understood when they were answered, and that people are reading, and listening to what is being captured.	Recommendation: None. Information only.

3. District Plan for Learner Success (Strategic Plan)	Superintendent Lenardon reviewed the information that was gathered through the committees work and that will be provided to the Board of Education at the November 25, 2024, meeting. AK – looks great. A lot of work! M. Franklin – not sure about spot for this. (add notes) “Supplemental withdrawal” – Grant and Sean are starting to work with some community groups to gather this missing data, to count the kids that are not there, as much as their... Spotlight – for Principals – data elements that can assist in identifying students that we need to make sure that we need to watch transitions, moving around a lot of life incidents that can cause extra stress to a student.	Recommendation: None. Information only.
